Lastly,

I am working on an idea I have for the Media page...that'll be done tomorrow (maybe tonight, but don't count on it).

Who the hell knows, I really don't care and I am not going to be intimidated by roberts scare tactics.. which is what I'm sure he was using on dave. I have enough money to hire a decent lawyer now anyway. Besides if it came down to that I think I'd rather spend my money hiring someone to break roberts knees, or better yet his hands.

Have fun wherever ur going this weekend.. Its late enough already get some sleep....

KJN,

I hope this doesnt come down to it...what stupid shit! I never solicited her. She fucking gave me her card and told me to call her if/when I started my own thing! I told her I was quitting, but thats about it, so she and RMA can go to hell. I cant remember if I sent her my letter, but it clearly states that I was looking for referrals it never asks clients to call me for work.

Furthermore, just last week, Todd sent me an e-mail saying that Robert was bragging to Dave, that he would know if you or I were stealing clients, or if Todd was going to work for you...as far as Robert and Dave know, Todd is moving back to Syracuse.

I am off on Friday, but Ill look at this OSG stuff soon.

Mike,

Few things:

1) Megan Tarter was sweet enough to call me and let me know that she told Robert that you and I in a manner solicited her when confronted by him (apparently she has a moral streak a mile long, she said she 'couldn't lie' - fucking bitch.) She prefaced this by saying that she also told Robert that she asked us to call her in case there was anyone she can recommend, ie small business that could not afford ingenuIT, etc. basically Robert still does not have a leg to stand on, especially in the vague terms of the non compete - but I just want to caution you against contacting people in a form that he could obtain and use against you, ie anything in writing, etc.. apparently he is on the warpath. If push comes to shove, what say we share the lawyers expense if he tries some stupid shit? Ironically, she was calling about a billing issue which never got resolved once Robert started grilling her about this.

Moving on, I had a meeting with OSG. Everything is cool with the current work, and I owe you $900 which I will give you just as soon as they pay me, should be in about two weeks they are pretty good at getting it out.

There are some more changes, mostly photographs, typefont shit - not any ground level design or navigation. They recognize that these final changes will also incur additional expense, but hopefully not too much more. But they are cool with all of that. I am e-mailing you a the few new photos that they want to use. The changes are as follows:

Home:

- 1) OSG is going to supply new copy for the homepage, and some other missing text for some photographs.
- 2) They like the darkened images on the homepage (osg3). Please make that the default across the other navs.

Media:

- 1) they would like something besides just blank space on this page, which I agreed with. They would like a picture with the heading with it spread out in some nice "eye popping" (those are their words), semi-creative way. The picture for each one will be the same as the main picture after you click on it.

a. Bus

additional photo for queen and quarterback (in attachment sent), so that there are three to each gallery.

b. Terminal Displays

image set to new image (in attachment) - zoom in and crop photo. Use same photo for Midtown Terminal, they want it to repeat.

Imperial wall Listing

Imperial Flag to Other Opportunities

Profile link from Home, keep link and pop up, to main page of Terminal Displays

c. Ferries
